Take Warning from a Burglar.

Robert C. White, of Georgetown, Del., has received a letter from a party calling himself a professional burglar, who signifies his intention of entering the attorney's house six months from date and carrying off what valuables he can safely take. He says his intentions are merely burglary, and that no arson, murder or other crime will be attempted. The burglar coolly admits in his lengthy epistle that it is not customary with him to notify subscribers of his actions. He says he knows that if he is caught it may be three years, to stand one hour in the pillory and receive twenty lashes, as did John Cummins, the Baltimore burglar.

The writer continues: "I saw John Cummins whipped at New Castle yesterday with twenty lashes. It is a very barbarous institution, and I can defy such a barbarism and likewise your law. I want to make a daring burglary in this State, and show you are powerless to arrest a burglar of first class. I am leaving Wilmington for the west, and will return by the line of Delmar and Georgetown. So I select your city as the first place to operate. I will show the people of Delaware that there is no danger of arrest as long as the police of Paris, London, Chicago and Baltimore could not arrest me. I mean to carry my word, and my stake is a big one. I confess I have not the least ambition to the pillory or whipping post. If you can pull me in I agree to receive ten lashes more. I will walk to the pillory and whipping post barefooted, but I would advise you not to anticipate such a pleasure."—Cor. Baltimore American.

What They Did in Vacation.

The pupils in a Berlin girls' school received instructions from their teachers to give an account of some incident during their holidays in the form of a letter. A ten-year-old child wrote: "My mother gave a poor wanderer a cup of coffee. He asked me to obtain for him some food and gave me his last ten pennings. Another wrote: "My hat was so plain that I cut some flowers in the garden to decorate it, and hid it away. My mother has not seen it yet; but I am very anxious about it." This girl received a caution as to her wrong-doing.

There is some humor in the following: "My mother desired me to make a pancake, and I fetched some flour and made it. It was so light that it broke in two and fell upon the sanded floor. I took it up and remodeled it. My mother pronounced it gritty; but nothing further was said." Among a number of other letters was this: "My father told me to capture some large yellow flies and take them to an apothecary, who would buy them. We caught a whole boxful and I took them to an apothecary, but he did not want any. I incautiously opened the lid of the box and the flies flew all over the shop."—Exchange.

A Carious Union.

The news comes to us of the celebration of a marriage contract between Lieutenant Francis Brant, one of the heroes of the Zulu war, with the daughter of King Massirre, of Umbongavato, a portion of the territory of Africa. True, the lady, his bride, is a kinky headed African; and by reason of the marriage of Lieutenant Brant he becomes possessed of a mining and trading concession worth $350,000, and he is now the royal consort of a lady who is destined to be queen of an empire 3,500 miles in length by 3,400 miles in width—a territory larger in extent than the United States of America—of innumerable resources and delightful climate, and bearing most abundantly all agricultural products and abounding in mineral wealth. Prince Umbongavato expects to become king when Massirre dies and rule over the Umbongavatos. He is commander in chief of the king's army of 250,000 soldiers, and he is also judge of all cases before the king where penalty is not death.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Water at Fifty Cents a Drink in Maine.

A Lewiston gentleman driving in the country found the watering places by the roadside dry as herring bones. Seeing a farmer in a yard by the roadside he drove up to the door and asked for water for his horse. The man looked at him interrogatively and said:

"Water? I should say not. I shouldn't agree to give your horse what water he might want under half a dollar. It's worth that."

The Lewiston gentleman paid it and the horse was watered, and the farmer said in explanation that all the water they had was brought a long distance laboriously, by hand, and that it cost nearly that amount in time and hard work to get it. Water at fifty cents a bucket in Maine is a novelty.—Lewiston Journal.

No Choice.

"Sure, Mrs. McCarty, an it's meself would have liked to have been a birrod on St. Valentine's Day.

"An for why? It's only a sorry looking birrod you would be, to my thinkin, Mrs. Mahoney."

"Same to yerself, and thank ye, ma'am; but on the day of St. Valentine—rist his soul—ivery birrod could choose his mate, an it's not meself that can do that, for all the fresh mate Olive had this blissed winter has been a bit of bacon ivery day, an it's toired of it indeed O' am."—Texas Sittings.

"German Syrup"

A Cough and Croup

For children a medicine should be absolutely reliable. A mother must be able to pin her faith to it as to her Bible. It must contain nothing violent, uncertain, or dangerous. It must be standard in material and manufacture. It must be plain and simple to administer; easy and pleasant to take. The child must like it. It must be prompt in action, giving immediate relief, as children's troubles come quick, grow fast, and end fatally or otherwise in a very short time. It must not only relieve quick but bring them around quick, as children chafe and fret and spoil their constitutions under long confinement. It must do its work in moderate doses. A large quantity of medicine in a child is not desirable. It must not interfere with the child's spirits, appetite or general health. These things suit old as well as young folks, and make Boschee's German Syrup the favorite family medicine.

The annual report of the Secretary of the Interior has been transmitted to the President. A table published in the Secretary's report for 1890 shows that not including Alaska, the Cherokee outlet and other Indian lands, the public lands of the United States amounted to 586,216,816 acres. The amount remaining June 30, 1891, was 579,864,693 acres, of which 294,027,773 are yet unsurveyed.

The Secretary estimates that at least 300,000,000 acres of these vacant lands are useless for agriculture, but 120,000,000 acres that are now desert may be reclaimed by irrigation, so as to produce the cereals, fruits and garden products possible in the climate where the lands are located.

"The present Commissioner of the General Land Office is of the opinion that the wisest plan would be to transfer the land and water to the direct control of the States, subject to such limitations and restrictions as would insure the reclamation of the land by the States and the transfer of title from the States, in the first instance to actual settlers, in quantity not exceeding 100 acres of land to each settler, with provisions for forfeiture to the United States in case of any violation by the State of the conditions of the grant.

"Under the Act of March 3, 1891, providing for desert land entries, there have been already filed maps of location for sixty-one reservoirs and forty-six canals and ditches, being 631.65 miles in length. Under the Desert Land Law of 1887, reclamation has been made and final proof produced in 5,366 entries, with an area of 1,717,120 acres.

"During the last year 3,143,090.78 acres of public lands were disposed of by cash sales, 8,214,140.93 by miscellaneous entries and 120,408.01 acres of Indian lands, aggregating 10,477,700.32 acres. The total cash receipts from various sources for the year amounted to $4,429,320.14. The number of agricultural patents issued during the year was 114,360, which, allowing 160 acres to each patent, would embrace an aggregate of 18,307,600 acres. There were patented for the benefit of railroad companies under Congressional grants during the year 3,088,679.23 acres.

In Nevada there are 53,689,524 acres subject to disposition by the Government, of which 23,850,748 acres are unsurveyed, and 326,632 acres are mineral land.

The opinion of Commissioner Carter of the General Land Office, regarding the disposition of arid lands, differs from that entertained by irrigation conventions recently held in Utah and Nebraska. The Commissioner thinks the wisest plan would be for Congress to transfer direct control of land and water to the State; the delegates to the conventions thought the Government should retain absolute control of those lands.

RAILROAD STATISTICS.

The Interstate Commission has issued its third annual on United States Railway Statistics. This report states that the railway mileage of the United States, June 30, 1890 was 163,597.05 miles, an increase during the year of 6,080 miles. The total mileage, including sidetracks, was 209,080 miles. The number of railway corporations is 1,797, and forty companies operate 47.51 per cent. of the total mileage. The total gross income of the railroads was $1,051,877,653, and seventy-four companies received 80 per cent. of this amount.

The total number of locomotives is 29,928 of which 3,394 are passenger and 16,140 freight; number of cars 1,164,188, of which 26,511 are passenger. Total number of men employed 749,301. Total capitalization of railway property, $9,894,483,400. Total number of passengers carried during the year, 492,430,965. Total tons of freight transported, 636,441,617. Number of persons killed in accidents during the year, 6,320; injured, 29,034.

The Shah of Persia is treating captured rebels with barbarous cruelty. He has them buried alive in brick pillars by the roadside where passers by can hear the groans of the wretched victims in their living tombs. The feeling against the Shah is so strong that it only requires an able and daring leader to inaugurate a rebellion that would drive him from Teheran.

News of Importance From Home and Abroad.

THE HALE & NORCROSS SUIT.

Superintendents Hamilton and Williams on the Stand—Williams Fined $50 for Contempt.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 1.—In the Hale & Norcross suit to-night Alonzo C. Hamilton, Superintendent of the Chollar, Potosi, Eschschuer, Alpha, New York and Silver Hill mines, one of the Hale & Norcross managers, from March, 1887, until a year later. He had never attended any meetings or paid any special attention to Hale & Norcross affairs. He saw a Chollar and a Hale & Norcross assay made, and noticed a great difference between a car of sample and pulp assays, but did not say anything about it. The Nevada mill worked the ores of two of the companies of which he was Superintendent. To a question as to whether he had received any money or property from the Nevada mill, he replied no, but admitted that one mill had bought stocks for him.

Superintendent Evan Williams was recalled and handed a list of bullion deposits with the Mint, which show that $400,000 was deposited by Bullion and Exchange clerks in money which went back to the bank. Mr. Baggett said that the object was to show that the bullion came from the mill of which the witness was Superintendent, thence went to the assay office of his brother-in-law, W. S. James, in Carson City, back to the Bullion and Exchange Bank, thence to the mint in the name of the clerks, and the proceeds in coin returned to the bank.

Witness replied that the books of the bank would show what amounts were deposited, but refused to produce the books.

Mr. Baggett then asked witness if he knew anything about the loss of three or five bars of bullion shipped from Placerville to Los Angeles and traced by agents of Wells, Fargo & Co., which bullion was claimed by him.

Witness rising from his chair said that he had never heard of any circumstance of the kind and whoever said so was "a liar." "This is an attempt," excitedly declared Mr. Williams, "to besmirch my character." Judge Hebbard remarked that the Court had not undertaken to besmirch Williams' character, and promptly fined him $50 for contempt, and further admonished that a repetition of such language would result in his incarceration in the county jail for the full limit allowed by law for contempt of court. Williams apologized for the language.

The witness was then asked if he had paid to H. M. Levy the sum of $1,649.16. Witness answered that he did not recollect whether he had paid that amount or not, but had made payments to Levy aggregating between $5,000 and $6,000. He could not remember why he paid this or any circumstances of the payment. Witness stated that in his opinion as an expert, the material which went out from the Hale & Norcross ore at the Nevada mill in the shape of tailings, would not justify the mine management in working them.

A Gang of Incendiaries.

ST. PAUL, December 1.—One of the most diabolical conspiracies ever concocted was made public here to-night by the arrest of two members of a gang of incendiaries, who for over a year have made a regular business of firing houses and stores for the purpose of securing a percentage of the insurance money. The scheme was unearthed by a member of the local detective service, who managed to get into confidence with the gang and nab them in the very act of applying a lighted match to a house. Maurice Michael is the name of one of the men arrested. His uncle, Mac Michael, was also arrested as accessory, and other members of the gang will probably be arrested in a few hours. Michael has confessed burning other houses in this city, and also states that when he lived in Chicago under the name of John Meyers he made lots of money by the same nefarious practice.

A Series of Contests Being Arranged.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 1.—The Pacific Athletic Club announced to-day that it is conducting negotiations looking to a series of important glove contests to follow the Obaynski-Woods fight which takes place at the rooms of the club on the 17th inst. Among the matches which the club had under consideration was one between Jim Hall of Australia and Jimmie Carroll of Brooklyn. Negotiations have been going on for some weeks but the club received no assurances from the men until last night. A match is also proposed between Johnny Griffin of Boston and George Lavine of Michigan.

Arizona for a New Constitution.

TUCSON, December 1.—Arizona has voted on a constitution. The returns thus far received show that more than four-fifths of the vote are for a constitution. The strongest opposition comes from Federal officials throughout the entire Territory. The constitution will be adopted by 5,000. There is great rejoicing all over Arizona.

The Apache Trouble.

TUCSON, December 1.—The reports sent out that the Apache Indians killed Daniels and wounded Major Downing in the Chiricahua mountains turns out the shooting was done by a man named Foy, who wore moccasins.

Convention of Journalists.

NEW YORK, December 1.—The Governing Board of the International League of Press Clubs was held to-day at the Imperial Hotel to complete arrangements for the league's next annual convention at San Francisco, January 14. The Committee on Transportation reported that arrangements are nearly completed for a special train. Delegates will leave New York January 5th and spend the 6th in Chicago, then to Omaha, Denver and Salt Lake City, arriving there on the 11th, and spending the day there, will then go to San Francisco, arriving there on the 13th, and return the same way. Mr. De Young urged the route changed and return via Southern California. He said Los Angeles and San Diego would give them a hearty reception. After some argument the board instructed the committee to change the route if possible, and return by Santa Fe.

Letters were received from a number of prominent journalists notifying the governors of their intention to attend the convention. Marshall Wilder, Eugene Field, W. J. Arkell, Kate Field and George Childs expect to go.

Suffering for Food.

CITY OF MEXICO, December 1.—The Government is aiding private individuals in several States to bring in corn, beans, meal and other kinds of food to sell at reduced prices to the poor who are suffering for food. There is more suffering at Chiapas than any other State and it is extending across the border into Guatemala.

The Mexican Minister in Guatemala reports that there is over 10,000 Mexicans in that country and that it is an open secret that sooner or later these people will demand annexation to Mexico, as the Texans did to the United States years ago. The plan is not ripe yet, but as soon as the revolution breaks out in Guatemala steps will be taken to carry out the scheme, and it may be taken for granted that any attempt at a revolution will be abetted by the Mexicans.

Public Debt Statement.

WASHINGTON, December 1.—The aggregate interest and non-interest bearing debt is $977,739,986. Decrease, $2,570,139. Cash in Treasury, $748,356,750, demand liabilities, $569,221,709, disbursing officers' balance, $40,008,123, gold reserve $100,000,000. Net cash balance, $39,126,917. Aggregate, $748,356,750. Cash balance in Treasury October 31st, 1891, $39,671,920. Cash balance in Treasury November 30, 1891, $39,126,917. Decrease during the month, $545,002.

The Contest for the Speakership.

WASHINGTON, December 1.—There is practically no change in the contest to-day. The list of members in the city showed one hundred and twenty. A number of these have not committed themselves yet. Springer places the number of unknowns at one hundred, Crisp and Mills following. Both worked actively to-day, and expressed themselves encouraged. McMillin, Springer and Hatch said their advices were all favorable.

The Work of Renegades.

WASHINGTON, December 1.—Indian officials thus far have received no information of an outbreak among the Apaches in Arizona. The officials are of the opinion, if reported depredations have been really committed, they are the work of a few renegades, who escaped capture with Geronimo three years ago and have since been hiding in the mountains.

Hotel Destroyed by Fire.

LEADVILLE, Col., December 1.—The Grand Hotel burned this morning. Nothing saved. It is believed that a man named Matthews, who was lying sick in the house was burned.

Why a Mosquito Bite Hurts.

Humboldt, who was a firm believer in the poisonous nature of the mosquito bite, considered the sucking out of the poison to be the explanation of the painlessness of some wounds. He affirmed that if the insect were allowed to suck to satiety no swelling took place, and no pain was left behind, and considered that when pain was produced it resulted from the hasty interruption of the process of sucking, since then the last infused poison would not be able to be withdrawn. He experimented with one of the most virulent species, allowing it gently to settle on the back of his hand, and reports of it:

"I observed that the pain, though violent in the beginning, diminishes in proportion as the insect continues to suck, and ceases altogether when it voluntarily flies away."—Knowledge.

Science comes to the front in the manufacture of grindstones. The best now made are composed of a mixture of pulverized quartz, powdered flint, powdered emery and rubber. They outwear by many years any natural stone.

The Silver State says among those who are feeding cattle at Lovelocks are: Jos. Marzon, who has about 600 head, J. H. Thies, 500 head, and H. W. Faus, 100 head of fine steers which he purchased of Stauffer & Sweetser. Louis Dean of Reno has bought 500 head of cattle of G. W. Oram of Battle Mountain and is now driving them to the meadows, where they will be fed this winter.

Richard Ryland has the cistern opposite the court-house about completed. It is walled and arched with brick and, it is claimed, will last for ages.

J. H. Thies of Lovelocks is in town. He says the greater part of the wheat crop of Big Meadows has been shipped and it netted farmers at the cars from $28.50 to $30 per ton.

A car-load of Senator Stanford's celebrated trotters went East yesterday in charge of Charles Marvin. Among the horses was the famous mare Sunol, which has been purchased by Robert Bonner of the New York Ledger.

Yesterday morning there was a rainbow in the northwest and everybody, except the weather sharps, said it was going to rain. An hour later this prediction was fulfilled and it rained heavily for awhile, and showers fell occasionally during the afternoon.

Following were the top prices for November 26th at Chicago and the relative prices of corresponding date in 1890:

Beaves $6.10, one year ago $5.25; hogs $4.10, one year ago $4.15; sheep $4.50, one year ago $4.80; lambs $5.00, one year ago $5.75; December pork $8.47, one year ago $9.20.

C. Haakell, foreman of Theodore Winters' ranch, visited Reno yesterday. He says about 60,000 pounds of cheese was produced at the ranch this season, and the quantity will be increased next year as there is demand for the product, and Winters' cheese bring a high price in the California market.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Receipts and Prices of Cattle and Sheep at Chicago.

The Live Stock Report gives the estimated

RECEIPTS OF CATTLE

At the Chicago live stock yards last week at 59,073 and the official receipts the previous week at 73,847. About 1,600 head of Western range cattle arrived, and among the receipts were several bunches of choice steers, $3.80, $3.90 and $4.00 being paid, the general market being steady. During the corresponding week last year some Wyoming sold at $3.60 and some rough Montana at $3.95 per 100 lbs.

The London and Liverpool markets have been liberally supplied; demand limited; values weak and 1/2 ct. per lb. lower. Good to prime beaver 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cts. per lb., estimated dressed weight.

Extra prime steers are quoted at $5.75 to $6.10 per 100 lbs; fair to medium steers (1,150 to 1,400 pounds) $3.25 to $3.85 per 100 lbs; common to fair steers (900 to 1,100 lb) $3.65 to $3.15.

SHEEP.

The estimated receipts of sheep last week were 28,835; official receipts, previous week, 40,048.

Little demand exists for feeders, and the majority of this class have gone to the city slaughterers at low prices. Lambs have brought steady prices, and a good many sheep and lambs have been sold together at prices much better than could be obtained by sorting. Old ewes have come forward in liberal numbers much to the detriment of the trade, and have sold at low prices. The same feeling prevails with the dealers as with cattle and hogs, i. e., "it will not pay to feed," and are rushing everything to market regardless of prices.

We quote:

Good to choice natives.....$4.80 @ 25

Fair to medium grades.....3.60 3.75

Choice Texans and Westerns...4.25 4.50

Fair and medium grades.....3.00 3.50

What Miss QuaiFFE Saw At, and Says of the National Convention.

Miss QuaiFFE, who represented the W. C. T. U. of Nevada at the National Convention at Boston, writes to a lady friend here as follows:

ALBANY, N. Y., November 20, 1891.

MY DEAR —: I returned from Boston last night. I greatly enjoyed the W. C. T. U. Convention in Boston, and thank the Reno W. C. T. U. heartily for making it possible for me to attend. I enjoyed it so much. On Sunday I heard Edward Everett Hale preach and afterward was introduced to him; then went to a baptismal service at Phillips Brooks' Church; then, after dinner, to hear Lady Henry Somerset at Tremont Temple, and a grand sermon it was. I will give you a few extracts of the convention proceedings below. In the evening I went to hear Mrs. Ballington Booth, with whom I shook hands. Oh, there were so many good things crowded into the one week of the convention that I could write pages were the time mine to do it. I showed many white ribbons my beautiful umbrella, which still has its white ribbon inside of it. A brief talk was allowed each State President or those representing them, and I talked of Nevada with all my heart.

Yours for God, home and every land,

EVA QUAIFFE.

CONVENTION NOTES.

The Legal Department was represented by Mrs. T. A. Jenkins with an earnest place for the unrestricted enfranchisement of women. She said that every State had reported progress to her. The free ballot for women is only a question of time. Illinois carries the banner, for she has now a State school suffrage law, and proposes to have municipal suffrage. Thirty-seven States and Territories have a State Superintendent under the W. C. T. U., and many others have county organizations.

Mrs. Hannah Bailey was then heard. The Peace and Arbitration Department, she said, is one that is playing an important part in the world's history. Its principles have been promulgated to many foreign countries. The Pan-American Congress, the bloodless revolution in Brazil, the attitude of President Harrison and Secretary Blaine in regard to arbitration, Victoria's speech at the prorogation of Parliament and the three peace congresses are very encouraging to the cause.

On motion of Mrs. Greenwood, the Convention voted to send a protest to the United States Government urging that the trouble with Chili be settled by peaceful arbitration.

A photograph of the officers and world's delegates was then taken grouped upon the platform.

Colonel Hadley of the Bartholomew Street Mission, New York, gave a brief report of his experience and work. He said that drunkards could be saved only by giving them Christianity. A large number of the audience, at his suggestion, pledged themselves to try and save at least one drunkard during the coming year.

THE PRINCIPLES ACTED UPON.

Here are a few of the principles that were acted upon:

Total abstinence for the individual and legal prohibition for the State noted.

The recognition of the total abstinence by the Catholic University at Washington.

Recommended the diligent and systematic study of the Bible.

Called particular attention to the reforming faith in God.

Urged W. C. T. U. women to use all practicable means to secure equal governmental rights in State and Church.

Announced the unalterable opposition of the Union to all political parties that in any way protects the liquor system.

That it would lend its influence to that party which has in its platform the doctrine of the enfranchisement of women, the prohibition of the liquor traffic and the preservation of the Sabbath.

Heardly condemned the action of the State Department in issuing, at the request of the brewers and maltsters, a circular letter to the United States Consuls in South and Spanish America instructing them to gather all the information possible regarding the beer trade in those countries with a view of extending the business, and most emphatically protested against a department of our Government being used as an agency for the extension of a traffic openly acknowledged as productive of crime and immorality.

Protested against the domination or interference of any sect or denomination with the freedom of the public schools.

Condemned the use by tobaccoists of advertisements in the shape of women's forms, and its use of obscene cards on cigar boxes and cigarette packages.

Protested against the display of demoralizing pictures on theatrical boards, the plague of vampire literature flooding the land with corruption, and the medical advertisements in many of the leading newspapers.

Deplored the influence lent to the increasing tide of impurity by women who as a means of support posed for impure advertising pictures, and that of women who wore an immodest style of dress in fashionable drawing rooms, and begged all people who valued public and private morality to help put down these vices.

Funeral Notice.

Members of Reno Lodge No. 13, F. & A. M., are hereby requested to meet at their hall to-day (Wednesday) at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, Amos Kinney. A full attendance is earnestly requested. By order of the

50 YEARS IN THE EPISCOPAL ORDER.

Archbishop Kendrick, of St. Louis.

Fifty years ago Peter Richard Kendrick, now Roman Catholic Archbishop of the Metropolitan See, was consecrated a Bishop. His golden jubilee is the first event of the kind in the United States. In May last a meeting was held in St. Louis, where the venerable Archbishop resides, for the purpose of considering how the golden jubilee of his consecration should be celebrated. It was determined to build a residence for him, to cost $50,000. This has been accomplished. Five hundred invitations have been issued to the commemorative pontifical mass which was celebrated Monday in the Cathedral at St. Louis, when the Archbishop took possession of his new house and appropriate festivities were held.

Archbishop Kendrick was born in Dublin, in 1806. He is a graduate of Maynooth College, and was ordained priest in 1832. In 1833 he came to this country, his brother being at the time Bishop of Philadelphia, where he was given a Professor's chair at Overbrook Seminary. Two years after he was made pastor of the cathedral parish and president of the seminary. In 1837 he was appointed Vicar-General; in 1841 coadjutor of Bishop Rosati, of St. Louis, whom he succeeded in the See in 1843. His consecration as Bishop of Drexel at Philadelphia on November 30, 1841, is the event which was celebrated. Dr. Kendrick has been an Archbishop since 1847. He is small in stature, very intellectual looking, a man of great learning and piety and a wise administrator.

UNCLE ALF AT HOME.

He Desires His Friends to Know He Is All Right.

BRAMANS, Wayne Co., Pa., Nov. 25.

EDITOR STATE JOURNAL:—Perhaps some of my friends in Reno would like to hear from me, so I take the opportunity of informing them through the JOURNAL that I arrived in Pennsylvania all right. I took a rest of one day in Salt Lake City and another in Chicago, and a few days with my oldest son in Owego, N. Y., and then came on here. I have been looking over the country I left twenty-eight years ago, and I find a great change in that time, especially in the inhabitants. But few of the once familiar faces are left to greet me, and as I inquire for first one and then another I am told they have joined the silent majority, and a visit to the village cemetery tells the tale. There I find the greater number of them are quietly laid at rest, and each stone bears the name of some old friend. My health continues good and I am trying to enjoy life by taking it easy. I found my son that came to the coast after me engaged in a good business and surrounded by everything that goes to make life pleasant. About all I do is drink sweet cider and eat buckwheat cakes with gilt-edged butter and maple syrup to trim them with.

I thought I would break in a colt or two, as I find that my son has a few that ought to be handled, but they think here I am too old for the business. The weather here has been very nice since we came, and not much storm or cold yet and no snow. Well, a trip across the plains now is some different from what it was 30 years ago, and I tell them to fully appreciate it they want to follow a bull team across once with the untutored red man as docile as he was when I crossed.

Yours Respectfully,
A. C. HILL.

A Stamp Fad.
"It makes us swear."
"It's the most senseless fad in the world."
The postoffice clerk went on, "Some fool has discovered that the most ungainly place in the world for a postage stamp is in the middle of the back of the envelope, where the flap is glued down."
"I see."
"It's a fad now. You must stick your stamp in the middle of the back of the envelope."
"Like a porous plaster?"
"Exactly. Oh, don't the stamp clerks rage! They lose hours of time turning over letters and hunting for stamps. I'll resign if the fool killer doesn't get to work."
"Must be very annoying?"
"Well, I should say it is. For heaven's sake don't spread this awful fever. I suppose next the idiots'll hide the postage stamps under a pile of bricks, and expect the clerks to go out and dig 'em up!"—New York World.

A Club of Ocean Travelers.
A number of gentlemen in India, whose business or pleasure calls them frequently to England, have formed themselves into what may be termed a travelers' co-operative association, with the object of lessening the expense of their voyages to and from the east. The subscription to this ocean club is to be 350 rupees, payable in monthly installments of ten rupees, there being no annual payment, and members will have the privilege of a free return passage once in three years, paying simply for the bare cost of their food on board. Should a member not be able to take his turn when it comes round, he can sell his passage ticket for anything he can get for it, not exceeding the total cost of membership. A steamer replete with all the latest improvements is to be built specially for the association, and it is proposed that the first journey to this country shall be made in January, 1893. The vessel is to accommodate 1,000 saloon passengers.—London Cor. Manchester Courier.

Lake Erie Drying Up.
Mr. J. T. Wamelink had occasion to visit the building inspector's office in the city hall, and as one or two of the officials are, like him, fond of hunting, the conversation naturally turned to that subject.
In speaking of the state of the water in the marshes, Mr. Wamelink said that within a few years the level of Lake Erie had been reduced two feet. Mr. Wamelink expressed the opinion that the permanent lowering of the water level was due to the constant increase in the channel at Niagara falls, which permitted a greater volume of water to roll over the falls. He was of the opinion that, in order to preserve the proper stage of water in the harbors of the lake, it would yet become necessary for engineers to raise the level of the Niagara river. Inspector Morse stated that it would be necessary to drop huge bowlders into the stream in order to accomplish that result.—Cleveland Leader and Herald.

Seventh Pig Had Seven Legs.
Friday night last a sow belonging to C. W. P. Howell gave birth to a litter of seven pigs. In this there is nothing very remarkable, but that the seventh one should have seven well formed legs is somewhat strange, to say the least. The pig is still alive and doing well.—Live Oak (Fla.) Banner.

A Knowing Cabbage.
A cabbage with fourteen heads can be seen in our counting room window. It was raised by Charles F. Mendall on the James Sherman place on the King Philip road, this city.—New Bedford (Mass.) Mercury.

Successor to the Spot.
Those little beauty spots on ladies' veils, which were supposed to look like patches of court plaster on the fair skin, have found a successor at last. The spot fashion had its drawbacks. The veil was liable to twist around, and no matter how carefully that spot was located it was almost sure to work around so that it came on the tip of the wearer's nose. Its successor is a dainty spray of flowers or a leaf worked on the gauze. One is supposed to come opposite each cheek.—New York Herald.
